

VIII. AMENDMENT PROCESS

A. SPECIFIC PLAN AMENDMENTS

A major amendment to the Specific Plan will require review and approval by Haven Gateway Owners, the City of Ontario Development Advisory Board, the Planning Commission, and the City Council. Such major amendments are governed by the California Government Code, Section 65500, which requires an application and fee submitted to the Ontario Planning Department stating in detail the reasons for the proposed amendment.

B. APPEALS - Article 34 of the Municipal Code of Ontario

Section 9-3.3405. Appeals from decisions of the Development Advisory Board. An applicant, any resident of the City, or any person owning real property in the City may appeal any decision of the Development Advisory Board made pursuant to this chapter to the Planning Commission, or the decision of the Development Advisory Board may be called up for review by the Planning Commission or the Council. (§ 2. Ord. 2038. eff. April 19, 1979).

Section 9.3.3410. Appeals from decisions of the Planning Commission. An applicant, any resident of the City, or any person owning real property in the City may appeal any decision of the Planning Commission made pursuant to this chapter to the Council, or a decision of the Planning Commission may be called up for review by the Council. (§ 2, Ord. 2038. eff. April 19, 1979).
