THE ONTARIO CITY LIBRARY INVITES YOU TO A FRANKENSTEIN PARTY PLANNING WORKSHOP FOR ADULTS

On Tuesday, October 3, 2017, from 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM, the Ovitt Family Community Library Adult Services Department is hosting a Frankenstein Party Planning Workshop for Adults. In honor of the 200th anniversary of Mary Shelley's classic novel and as part of this year's Ontario Reads program, this fun, free workshop will offer participants the opportunity to make and taste Frankenstein-themed appetizers, desserts and beverages; and make and take Frankenstein party decorations. During the event, Barnes & Noble will be on-site with a selection of materials available to purchase. Supplies are limited for this event, so participation is first come, first served.

The Ovitt Family Community Library is located at 215 E. C Street in Ontario, next to City Hall. For more information about the Frankenstein Party Planning Workshop, please call the Ovitt Family Community Library at (909) 395-2205.

About the City of Ontario

The City of Ontario is Building A Better Tomorrow with urban lifestyle districts that create sustainable places to live, work and play. Located just 35 miles east of downtown Los Angeles, the City of Ontario is ideally situated as Southern California's gateway. With three major interstates, two railroads and the Ontario International Airport, Ontario offers direct access from Los Angeles to the rest of California, and to North America. With approximately 170,000 residents and residential development on the rise, Ontario looks to double its population in the next 20 years, making it one of the 100 most populated Cities in the nation. Complementing its business and residential core, Ontario dazzles with its amenities such as the Ontario Convention Center, Citizens Business Bank Arena, and the Ontario Mills Mall. To learn more about the City of Ontario, visit www.ontarioca.gov or call (909) 395-2000.
